5.2. Taxes. All amounts properly invoiced in respect of the Services in accordance with this Agreement are exclusive of all taxes or other governmental or regulatory duties or other amounts that are applicable on any compensation for the Services. If any such taxes or amounts are applicable to amounts payable to PLI, they will be added to amounts invoiced to and paid by Client. PLI reserves the right to increase the Fees by a corresponding amount in the event Client determines any withholding tax obligation prevents PLI from receiving the specified Fees for the Services set forth in the Proposal. For greater certainty, all taxes or levies generally applicable to PLI's operations (e.g. property taxes, payroll taxes and levies, corporate income tax) are included in the Fees and any increases or decreases in such taxes or levies will not result in any change to the Fees.

5.3. Invoicing. PLI shall provide separate itemized invoices with respect to the Services to Client on a monthly or performance milestone basis as set out in the Proposal. Taxes payable shall be shown as separate line items on each invoice. PLI shall provide to Client such supporting documents, vouchers, statements and receipts as may reasonably be requested by Client.

5.4. Payment. Subject to performance of the Services in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and subject to any other provisions regarding payment in the Proposal, Client shall pay PLI all undisputed compensation due within 30 days after the receipt by Client of an invoice from PLI and accompanied with all supporting materials required pursuant to Section 5.3 - Invoicing of these Terms and Conditions. ## 6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND CONFIDENTIALITY

6.1. Intellectual Property and Rights. PLI does and shall own all PLI Intellectual Property. Client may use, publish or distribute the Deliverables without restriction provided that Client shall indemnify and hold PLI harmless from any losses, costs, damages or expenses (including reasonable legal fees) suffered or incurred by PLI as a result of Client's alteration of a Deliverable without PLI's consent or use of a Deliverable for purposes other than those for which the Deliverable was expressly provided having regard to the Proposal. PLI makes no warranty and accepts no duty of care to third parties using or relying on any Deliverable and Client bears the entire risk related to providing any Deliverable to any third party. PLI may keep one copy of the Deliverables for its files, which copy shall be subject to the confidentiality requirements set out in this Agreement.

6.3. Grant of License. PLI agrees to grant Client a non-exclusive, non-transferrable, royalty free, personal license to use, copy, and distribute the PLI Intellectual Property only to the extent it is unmodified and contained in a Deliverable as provided by PLI and only if it is absolutely required for the function of such Deliverable. Client shall not otherwise use any PLI Intellectual Property for any purpose without the prior written agreement of PLI, and shall not, directly or indirectly, de-compile, disassemble, or in any way to attempt to reverse engineer, any PLI Intellectual Property, or any Deliverable to extract, derive, or otherwise generate, any PLI Intellectual Property.

(a) treat as confidential all Information in connection with the Proposal and PLI Confidential Information (the "Confidential Information") acquired or to which access has been given in the course of, or incidental to, the performance of the Services or this Agreement; and

(b) not use (except for the purpose of the Services, including disclosure to its personnel, subcontractors and Affiliates with a need to know), disclose, or permit to be disclosed, to any person or entity, the Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the other party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this provision shall not be interpreted as prohibiting or in any way restricting the disclosure by either party of any Confidential Information which:

(i) is now or becomes public through no fault of that party;

(ii) that party already had knowledge of or has independently developed from its own work prior to the date of this Agreement;

(iii) that party received from a third party on a non-confidential basis and who had a right to disclose it; or

(iv) that party is required to disclose pursuant to a court order or order of an administrative agency having jurisdiction over the Recipient, provided that, to the extent reasonably possible under the circumstances, the other party has first been given an opportunity to defend against or limit the scope of such order.

6.5. Injunctive Relief. Each party acknowledges and agrees that unauthorized disclosure of Information or other violation or threatened violation of this Agreement by such party with respect to this Article 6 - Intellectual Property Rights and Confidentiality of these Terms and Conditions may cause irreparable harm to the other party for which damages would not deem adequate remedy. Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available to a party, each party shall have the right to apply for equitable relief by way of injunction against the anticipated, present or continuing breach by the other party of such provisions of this Agreement without the necessity of proving damages or furnishing a bond or other security.

6.6. Photographs, Videos and Other Recordings. Client and any of its personnel or representatives attending at the facilities where the Services are being performed, shall not, without PLI's prior written consent, take any photograph, video or any other visual or audio recording while in attendance at such facilities.

7. WARRANTY, INDEMNITY AND LIABILITY

7.1. Warranty. PLI warrants the Services will be performed in accordance with the specifications set forth in the Proposal. Such warranty will be effective for a period of 90 days from the completion of the Services evidenced by the delivery of the final report regarding the Services by PLI to Client. Services which do not conform to the above-stated warranty obligation will be re-performed by PLI at PLI's expense, or if reperformance is impracticable or impossible, PLI will refund to Client the price paid to PLI for the non-conforming Services. Except as specified in this Section 7.1 - Warranty of these Terms and Conditions, PLI hereby disclaims and Client waives all representations, conditions and warranties (whether express, implied or statutory), including without limitation any warranty or condition:

(a) of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement, title, satisfactory quality, or quiet enjoyment; or

(b) arising from any course of dealing, course of performance, or usage in the industry.

To the extent an implied warranty cannot be disclaimed, such warranty is limited in duration to 90 days from the completion date for the Services set forth in the Proposal and Client's sole and exclusive remedy for breach of any warranty shall be, at PLI's option, re-performance of the Services or termination of this Agreement and return of the portion of the Fees paid to PLI by Client for such non-conforming Services. The warranties and remedies set forth herein are exclusive.

7.2. Indemnity. Subject to Section 4.5 of these Terms and Conditions, and to the limitations and exclusions of liability in this Agreement, each party (the "Indemnitor") shall indemnify and save harmless the other party, its directors, officers, employees, agents, subcontractors and Affiliates (the "Indemnitees") from and against any and all losses, costs, damages and expenses suffered or incurred by the Indemnitees or payable to any third party arising from any breach of this Agreement by the Indemnitor, or the negligent acts or omissions or willful misconduct of the Indemnitor and/or its directors, officers, employees, agents, subcontractors or Affiliates in connection with the Services or this Agreement except to the extent that such losses, costs, damages or expenses are caused by the breach of contract, negligent act or omission or willful misconduct of the Indemnitees.

7.3. Limitations on Liability. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement:

(a) PLI's (including its directors, officers, employees, agents, subcontractors and Affiliates) total aggregate liability to Client and to any person or entity claiming through Client for any breach of this Agreement, claim of infringement of intellectual property rights, negligent act or omission or gross negligence in relation to the Services or this Agreement, whether based in tort (including without limitation, negligence), breach of contract, statutory or strict liability, equity or otherwise, shall not exceed the total cumulative sum of the Fees received by or payable to PLI for performance of the Services; and

(b) in no event shall PLI (including its directors, officers, employees, agents, subcontractors and Affiliates) at any time be liable to the Client or to any other person for any special, indirect, incidental damages, consequential damages, loss of revenue, loss of profit, loss of production, loss of use of any equipment, cost of any replacement equipment, cost of capital, claims by or through Client's end-clients, loss of business reputation or opportunity or any other commercial or economic loss which may be sustained by them arising out of or relating to the Services or this Agreement, whether such liability arises out of contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, warranty, equity or any other legal theory. PLI's liability shall be limited to specifically identified written claims submitted by Client to PLI within one year from the completion date of the Services specified in the Proposal.

(c) PLI's Affiliates shall have the same rights and entitlements as PLI pursuant to this Article 7 - Warranty, Indemnity and Liability of these Terms and Conditions as if such Affiliates were party to this Agreement and Client agrees that PLI's Affiliates shall be entitled to directly rely upon the provisions of this Article 7 – Warranty, Indemnity and Liability of these Terms and Conditions and enforce same against Client.

7.4. Assessment of Damages. Client acknowledges and agrees that it is in a better position than PLI to foresee and evaluate any potential damage or loss that Client may suffer in connection with the Services and the Deliverables or any other circumstance related to this Agreement and the Fees PLI is charging Client for performance of the Services have been calculated on the basis that PLI will exclude and limit its liability as set out in this Article 7 – Warranty, Indemnity and Liability of these Terms and Conditions.

8. DELAY, SUSPENSION/CANCELLATION AND TERMINATION

8.1. Force Majeure. PLI shall not be liable for any expense, loss or damage resulting from delay or prevention of performance of the Services caused by fires, floods, acts of God, unusual weather events, public health risks, quarantine, epidemic, pandemic, strikes, labor disputes, labor shortages, inability to secure materials or equipment, fuel or other energy shortages, riots, thefts, accidents, transportation delays, acts or failure to act of Client, acts or failure to act of governmental authorities, Client's delay in obtaining licenses, equipment breakdown or provision of information, materials or equipment to PLI, or any other cause whatsoever, whether similar or dissimilar to those enumerated above, beyond the reasonable control of PLI or any subcontractor or Affiliate. In the event of any delay arising by reason of any of the foregoing, the schedule and Fees as set out in the Proposal shall be equitably adjusted as may be required.

8.2. Suspension/Cancellation. This Section 8.2 is subject to any suspension/cancellation/termination policy specified in the Proposal. Client may, for its convenience, delay or suspend PLI's performance of any or all of the Services, by giving written notice to PLI, provided that arrangements agreeable to both parties have been made with respect to the storage or disposition of Client's Property during the period of any such delay or suspension. In addition, Client shall compensate PLI for direct reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred by PLI that are directly attributable to a delay or suspension, but not for lost profit. Such costs shall be invoiced to Client and payable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. At Client's request, PLI shall resume performance of the Services as soon as reasonably possible following a delay or suspension. If arrangements for the storage or disposition of Client's Property during the period of any such delay or suspension have not been agreed to within 14 days of PLI's receipt of Client's notice of intent to delay or suspend the Services, or such shorter period deemed necessary by Powertech if circumstances render 14 days impracticable, PLI reserves the right to return or store the Client Property as follows:

- (a) return any and all such Client Property to Client, at Client's risk and expense; or
- (b) store any and all such Client Property, at Client's cost and on terms acceptable to PLI.

Client shall compensate PLI for direct reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred by PLI that are directly attributable to such disposal.

PLI may suspend performance of Services by giving prompt written notice to Client where Client has failed to provide any consents, approvals, information, Client Property or instructions required by PLI to perform the Services in a timely and complete manner or when payment for such Services is not received by PLI within 45 days after the submittal of an undisputed invoice to Client. Notwithstanding the foregoing, PLI may stop work immediately without notice, and without penalty, in the event of a health or safety emergency and shall notify Client of such health or safety emergency in writing as soon as practicable thereafter.

8.3. Termination for Default by Client. Without restricting any other rights or remedies that may be available, Client may, at its sole option, immediately terminate this Agreement with written notice to PLI if PLI has failed to comply with any material term or condition of this Agreement, and PLI has failed to rectify, or take adequate steps to rectify, any such default to the satisfaction of Client, acting reasonably within 30 days' of receipt of written notice from Client setting out the act(s) of PLI's default.

8.4. Termination for Default by PLI. Without restricting any other rights or remedies that may be available, PLI may, at its sole option, immediately terminate this Agreement with written notice to Client if:

8.5. Termination for Bankruptcy or Similar Proceedings. Either party may immediately terminate this Agreement by written notice to the other party in the event that the other party commences bankruptcy, receivership, insolvency, reorganization or other similar proceedings. A party shall immediately notify the other party in the event any of the foregoing proceedings are commenced. After written receipt of notice of such proceedings, the other party may suspend work or payment under this Agreement to the extent necessary to protect that party against loss.

8.6. Obligations Upon Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, PLI shall cease to perform any further related Services and Client shall immediately pay PLI for all Services performed to the effective date of termination and reimburse PLI for all reasonable expenses and costs incurred up to the effective date of termination, including any non-cancellable commitments, facility charges and/or costs associated with demobilization as a result of the termination, as applicable. Subject to any other suspension/cancellation/termination policy specified in an applicable Proposal. Such amount shall be invoiced to Client upon termination and payable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, provided that where payment has been paid to PLI in advance of the performance of the Services which have not and will not be delivered to Client following termination, PLI shall, at PLI's option, promptly return the price paid to PLI to Client. The amount of the refund shall be in the amount of the Fees paid to PLI, less any amount payable to PLI by virtue of this Section 8.6, including but limited to amounts paid for Services performed, non-cancellable commitments, and demobilization costs.

8.7. Disposition of Client Property. Within 30 days of the completion or termination of the Services, Client shall, in respect of any Client Property, either

- (a) remove from PLI's premises, care or custody all such Client Property;
- (b) direct PLI to return any and all such Client Property to Client, at Client's cost;
- (c) direct PLI to destroy any and all such Client Property, at Client's cost; or

Upon failure of Client to do any of the above within the specified time, and subject to any applicable statutory requirements, PLI shall have no obligation to keep such Client Property and shall be free to dispose of it at Client's expense.

In no event shall Powertech be responsible or liable for any loss resulting from the retention or destruction of Client Property after the completion or termination of the Services. In the event that Client fails to remove any Client Property, or provide instructions in writing to PLI with respect to the disposition of same, PLI may be entitled to use or dispose of the Client Property as it sees fit in such circumstances. Client may agree to indemnify Powertech for all reasonable cost and/or liability arising out of the return, storage or disposition of any Client Property referred to in this clause.

9. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

9.1. Proceedings. The parties shall attempt to amicably resolve any dispute. If the parties are unable to resolve such dispute within 30 days after the date the dispute arose, either party may initiate litigation upon written notice to the other party.

9.2. Injunctive Relief and Continued Performance. For the avoidance of doubt, it is agreed that nothing in this Article 9 - Dispute Resolution of these Terms and Conditions shall prevent a party from seeking equitable relief before any appropriate court, including but not limited to with respect to breach of the confidentiality and intellectual property provisions of this Agreement. The commencement of any dispute resolution proceedings shall in no way affect the continual performance of the parties' respective obligations under this Agreement.
